

82 Days in Hell

Original title: 82 dagen in de hel

A three-part documentary that reveals the gripping stories of civilians and soldiers who sought refuge in the Azovstal factory during the Russian bombings of Mariupol in 2022. For 82 days, thousands of people endured this ordeal, which is captured through intimate interviews and archival footage. The series explores underground life, the daily struggle, and the aftermath of this traumatic experience. It reflects on the strength and resilience of people under extreme conditions and carries a universal message of courage and the instinct for survival.
