

Hokwerda's Child

Original title: Hokwerda's Kind

Thirty-three-year-old Lin is a long-distance swimmer. For four years, she has been in training for the gruelling swim from Dover to France. A few weeks before her event, she meets Henri, a deep-sea welder, who thrives on danger as much as she does. Mutual seduction consumes them, and they plummet into a cruel love affair, drawing each other ever deeper, forgetting that lovers too can drown.
