

Practical Pistol Shooting

Original title: Practical Pistol Shooting

Muriel (32), married to successful radiologist Jonas, ends up in an irreversible coma after they become victims of a shoot-out in a local shopping mall. The possibility of euthanasia is discussed with her family but when Jonas discovers that Muriel was on the verge of leaving him, he opposes the option and starts digging into his wife's past. The more he discovers, the more he becomes obsessed and finds himself alienated from reality.
