

Swarm

Original title: Swarm

In a mute city where screens blaze, a community of dissenters commit to a strange slumber. Weary of struggling, a protagonist decides to heed their call. Through encounters on this other side of reality, he gathers antidotes to helplessness that may revive language. When he wakes up, nothing has changed but everything is different: he's no longer alone. Both mystical tale and counter-utopia, Swarm claims imagination as a means to amend reality.
